ARIZONA PRESS ASSOCIATION.

The undersigned respectfully invite all editors and managers of the Territorial press to meet with them in the City of Phoenix, at 10 o'clock, October 16, 1890, for the purpose of perfecting the organization of an Editorial Association.

L. C. HUGHES, Tucson Star.
E. S. GILL, Phoenix Republic.
J. O. DENHAM, Phoenix Gazette.
N. A. MORFORD, Phoenix Herald.

BUILD sidewalks.

Don't fail to register.

NUMBER the houses before winter.

Fly the American flag over the public schools.

Get ready your exhibits for the Territorial fair.

BUSINESS of all kinds is improving in Arizona.

THE REPUBLICAN is a great missionary for Arizona.

FRUIT culture is the most profitable industry in Arizona.

WASHINGTON street, at least, should have good sidewalks.

STILL there is time to pass a house numbering ordinance.

The circus will soon be here and drain the city of its floating cash.

KEEP the fingers of the Cochise colony off the cash of Maricopa county.

ORGANIZED crime under the name of Mormonism must cease in Arizona.

THE Stars and Stripes should wave from every school house in Arizona.

The Buckeye Blade is not very big, but she cuts clean and cuts fearlessly, too.

DO ALL YOU CAN to induce your far-away friends to visit Phoenix this winter.

REPUBLICANS of Maricopa county will nominate the winning ticket September 29.

EVERYWHERE over the Territory the prospects for Republican success are encouraging.

VOTE for the Republican legislative ticket and thereby insure an honest administration of Territorial affairs.

REPUBLICANS in every county must have perfect organization in order to succeed. It is organized effort that wins.

ARIZONA Democrats in their Territorial Convention had no word of condemnation for organized crime in the Territory.

PIMA county Republicans present a remarkably strong ticket to the voters of that county. It should be elected from top to bottom.

REPUBLICANS of Arizona are in favor of free education of the children of the Territory and so expressed themselves in their platform. The Democratic convention entirely ignored the public school question.

GEORGE J. ROSKRUKE, of Tucson, seems to be afraid to acknowledge under which banner he marches in his candidacy for county treasurer. Can it be that he is ashamed of the Pima Democracy?

WHAT do the old line Democrats of Pima think of a candidate on their ticket like George J. Roskrue, who is ashamed of his Democracy and has all his cards printed simply candidate for County Treasurer, instead of Democratic candidate.

A GREAT effort has been made by a few Democratic organs to try to make out that the Republican party endorsed a land court, despite the fact that a resolution upon the subject was unanimously voted down in the Territorial Convention. Two years ago Mark Smith made a great cry about land grants and what he would do in Congress to knock them out if he were only re-elected. Like all his other promises, and his entire career in Congress has been marked by a masterly course of doing nothing. Speaking of his promises of two years ago, the Tombstone Epitaph aptly says:

If we are not mistaken, Mark Smith, during his last campaign, promised the people of the Salt River Valley that if he would give him their votes he would introduce a bill in Congress before Christmas that would settle the land grant business, especially the Perita fraud. This was two years ago. On the strength of this promise Maricopa county gave him about 1900 majority, but have they ever heard of any bill that has introduced to settle the land grant question or give a quittance to the Perita fraud? Have they ever heard of any speech of his that had for its object the settlement of the land grant question? If he has ever said or done anything in this matter it has yet to be reported. The fact is that the people of the Salt River and Gila Valleys are indebted to a Republican official, Surveyor-General Johnson, for the security they now feel in the possession of their homes. It was owing to his report, showing the utter worthlessness and fraudulent character of the Perita grant, that the general land office ordered it as a fraud, which practically disposed of the matter. Under these circumstances it would merely be an act of gratitude on the part of the inhabitants of Maricopa and Pima to give their votes to Mr. Cheyney, the candidate of the party that has secured them in their homes.

It is said that the telegraphic service of THE REPUBLICAN is to be cut. We trust not. Its press report is the most valuable one on the coast outside of San Francisco, and it will be missed during the campaign.

This from the Tombstone Prospector. Ordinarily we do not notice such things, but this time we will. The only surprise is that a sensible man like the editor of the Prospector would notice such rumors. Why, don't you remember, Brother Rags, that when THE REPUBLICAN started "Rumor" said it was a thirty-day-organ that would fill an early grave. Then "Rumor" said at the end of the first month it might last sixty days. Again this same "Rumor" said when the editor was out on a trip over the Territory pushing his business and getting acquainted, that he had skipped. Only the other day he had occasion to make a short business trip to Tucson and immediately this same "Rumor" said the editor had started to California and would not return. Why, we have grown so accustomed to these "Rumors" that they pass us by like the idle wind. All the while THE REPUBLICAN has gone on giving the news seven days in the week, and like a young, healthy infant, waxing fat and growing stronger every day of its existence. It is on a better and better basis each succeeding day and so far from giving up its telegraphic service is negotiating for a private wire to run directly into the office which will give it direct connection with San Francisco and Chicago, a privilege enjoyed by no other paper west of Kansas City excepting THE REPUBLICAN.

SAYS the San Francisco Bulletin: "The census gives Utah a population of 211,871. In 1880 it had 143,963. This is a good rate of increase though not equal to that of several similarly situated and conditioned States and Territories, such as Colorado and Montana for instance. Much of it is also due to the influx of Gentiles, especially in Salt Lake and Ogden. This result discredits the Mormon argument that their peculiar system has made a desert bloom which would otherwise have laid waste. Notwithstanding assiduous missionary and colonization effort in Europe and the Eastern States, Utah fails to keep up with the procession. Her relic of barbarism is a drag on her progress. The enforced Mormon exodus opened Salt Lake Valley in advance of the natural wave of settlement, but under other auspices its growth would have been more rapid. Mormonism is a case of arrested development, materially as well as morally and intellectually."

ONE of the peculiar things to be found in Phoenix is its lack of a fruit dryer. There was one run here during one summer, but it was mismanaged and, of course, failed. There is a fortune here for any man of experience who will establish himself at or near this city with proper machinery and enter into the business of buying and drying the products of the orchards of the valley. New orchards are coming into bearing yearly, and though the shipments of fresh fruit eastward will take a large portion of the fruit, yet tons of it will rot upon the ground if no dryer or canner is here to take care of it. Home-dried fruit is often of a fair quality, but the pack of a standard drying house always obtains the top price in the market.

THERE seems to be something wrong about the census in Yavapai county and it is to be wondered at that the Prescott papers have not yet objected. The United States census of 1880 gave to Yavapai a population of about 9000; the influx for the next two years must have been enormous, for at a census called for by the legislature, in 1882, the giant county showed that she had 28,880 people within her borders and, what is more, she took representation in the legislature for that number. The claim has been made that Yavapai county has been steadily growing in population, yet the present census only finds 11,000 souls. Something must be wrong. It is to be feared that the United States enumerators failed to name and number the cattle upon the hills.

ONE of Prescott's most prominent attorneys is authority for the statement that if this city were offered the capital for the year it would be refused. For years the "City of the Hills" had been sitting in dignity, relying more upon her possession of the capital and a military post than she did upon downright work, till her industries were stilled and her capabilities neglected. Now, lacking both the capital and the military headquarters, the town has been thrown upon its own resources, its citizens have put on their working clothes and, by dint of good rustling, have so pushed their town that it now knows unprecedented prosperity.

GEORGE J. ROSKRUKE must be "stuck on himself." All his campaign cards bear his picture and omit any reference whatever to the Democratic party which nominated him.

THE Republicans and anti-Mormon Democrats of Apache county will nominate a ticket that will relegate Mormonism to the rear in that badly misgoverned county, this year.

WONDERFUL things happen in Apache county amongst the Mormons. During the recent conference they claim a miracle was performed. A woman claimed to have the power of tongues and these ignorant dupes say she gave evidence of this power at the church meeting. Wonders will never cease.

You will find dozens of Mormons in Arizona who have conversed with Christ. According to their say so the second person of the Trinity makes a business of holding daily converse with the Saints. But what can you expect of an organization that teaches defiance to the laws and that plural marriage is a necessity for entering the Kingdom of Heaven.

The murder of the Pima Indian near Tempe is a crime that calls for heavy retribution. The Pimas are a peaceable, well disposed people, and should be shown that the strong arm of the law is ever ready to protect them. To retain the confidence of the Pimas the murderers of their tribesman must be hunted out and severely dealt with.

THE REPUBLICAN presents this morning a gossip letter from San Francisco on the political situation in California. The writer is a newspaper man of the coast metropolis, one who stands very close to the leading workers in both parties, a close and shrewd observer, and one whose views on the situation can be vouched for as being as near correct as can be obtained. His letter deserves a careful perusal.

WHAT are our base ball experts doing in the matter of a base ball tournament during fall week? The Tucson team, which lately won honors from the Tombstone nine and now claim the championship of the Territory, is anxious to meet a Phoenix team at that time. The Phoenix boys cannot afford to be behind in this matter and something should be done at once. It has been suggested by parties interested, that a meeting be called for Monday night to determine upon some plan of action.

THERE is a great deal of dissatisfaction expressed by the United States pensioners of Arizona at the long time it takes to get returns from their vouchers when sent to San Francisco. The vouchers are generally sent on the fourth of the pension month and returns are not received here until the twentieth of the month or still later which is a delay of fourteen days in San Francisco, an unnecessarily long time. A pension agency should be established in Arizona or Southern California to expedite payment.

IT is evident the Star is not particularly enamored of either Mark Smith or Peter J. Brady from the way it hits at both in the following: "The absence of 'Little Steve' from the Territory is now being accounted for on the theory that he was made the confidential treasurer of the Wham robbers, with the understanding that he was to see that their defense was properly conducted, and that after the first payment to attorneys and their strikers was made, Steve had urgent business which called him to South America. It cannot be possible that 'Little Steve' put up the scheme to secure the paymaster's coin to square up his shortage as treasurer of the prison board?"

There are very few in this valley who fully appreciate the amount of fruit canned annually in the valley or the advantages offered here for a first-class fruit packing establishment. The amount of fruit canned this year by private individuals does not fall far short of 40,000 pounds. One of the local tin-smiths alone, has so far in the season, sold the equivalent of 4720 quart tins holding two pounds of fruit each. Several other dealers and stores have also made large sales and, judging by the number of cans and jars bought, the estimate above given can not be far from the true amount.

THE REPUBLICAN has on several occasions asked what had become of the extra $25,000 collected in taxes in Maricopa county the last year over the one preceding, but as yet the Board of Supervisors has failed to give an explanation. We reproduce today from the Buckeye Blade an article showing how several thousand dollars of the amount has been squandered to line the pockets of a select few. Voters should read this and ponder well the advisability of retaining such cormorants in power.

There will be Sunday school in the new Presbyterian church this morning from 10 until 11.

Rev. Crouch, of Gila Bend, will occupy the pulpit of the Washington street Methodist church this morning and evening.

Services will be held in the Methodist Church, South, this morning by Rev. Mr. Fuller, the regular pastor. There will be evening services also.

Two teams left Gregory's lumber yard yesterday for Florence, loaded with lumber and shingles for the new private residence of F. G. Hardwick.

Charles T. Walters' new house on North Cortez street is now completed and will soon be ready for occupancy. Charlie expects to spend his evenings "at home" in the near future.

He Loved Precision in Speech. Detroit Free Press.

A citizen who was stopped by a tramp on Michigan avenue the other day replied to his request by saying:

"No, sir—no, sir—not a penny! You are a fraud!"

"In what respect?"

"Why, haven't you asked me for money?"

"Certainly; but how does that make me a fraud?"

"Well, then, an impostor."

"But I'm no impostor. I simply asked you for a dime. I didn't claim to be either the Governor of New York or a fire-sufferer. I want no statement from which you can argue that I am either a fraud or an impostor."

"Well, I have nothing for you."

"Ah! But that's different. Now you make a plain statement of facts, and I have nothing further to say. I can stand it to be poor, but ambiguity of language is something that I never have and never will accept. Good morning, sir!"

Joseph Campbell and Court Stenographer Pinney leave this morning for Yuma to attend the session of the District Court.

R. H. Greene returned yesterday from Peoria, Illinois, where he has been spending a vacation of several months. He said that he is now forming about every night and that the weather changed from hot to cold with startling rapidity. There are a large number of Illinoisans interested in Arizona and Mr. Greene is confident that this winter will see a strong influx of population into this valley from Peoria and other cities of central Illinois.

W. A. McGinnis leaves by this morning's train for Yuma to attend court as an expert witness in the Horne mining suit.
